

Aqua-Ice 2019

The Purpose

Aqua-Ice (Aquaculture Conference Iceland) is a Ltd. company but not a lobby group, working towards specific interests. It's purpose is to hold an annual conference with the following aims:

- Encourage professional and informative discussion about the aquaculture industry.
- To be a platform for communication between all those who are involved in the aquaculture industry in Iceland.

Non-Profit Organization

'Strandbunadur' the organizer of the Aqua-Ice conference is a Non-Profit Organization founded by 16 companies and organizations and meant to be a platform for stakeholders to meet and discuss important industry-related issues of common interest. It is funded by sponsors, advertisements and admission fees and it is neither linked to any one organization nor the government.

Aqua-Ice

This conference is the only one in Iceland of its kind. The conference language is Icelandic but some lectures will be in English. The first Aqua-Ice conference was held 2017 with 260 people participating and 2018 with 300.

Participants

It includes those who are active in fish farming, shellfish culture, algae culture, processing, marketing and sales, services, research, and development as well as the public sphere, teachers and students, media and other interested parties.

Agenda

The conference is composed of individual sessions, covering specific areas of the aquaculture industry. The program will be published in November 2018 on conference website:
